

Our Hope; Celebrating Jesus Christ's Resurrection !!!

From a writing dated 8/12/2008: "... Look Up, Debbie! Look Up! Look Up! Gaze into My eyes on the Cross. Focus on the love as you see the horror and pain. Know there was Hope at the moment of My despair. You can see and sense what others do not. You have been prepared; equipped, trained, practiced, tested and commissioned—other's have not. Debbie, you possess a desire to seek Me, to know Me, to trust and have faith in Me, to love Me, to have Hope and to live life more abundantly. Other's have not taken the time to do so.

Far away from your imagination, evil is preparing the worst day in your nation's history. Step by step, the intensity is building. Yet, My people continue trudging through the muck and mire unaware until it is too late. Just as you saw pain and sorrow in My eyes - I hung naked on the Cross; the humiliation added to a slow and agonizing Earthly death. Debbie, my eyes are filled once again with pain and sorrow. Yet, I also have Hope, today, as I had then, because My Father has a plan to further His Kingdom.

When you find yourself slipping into the pit of despair, remember to look into My eyes and see Hope and all powerful Love. Be empowered to rise above your circumstances—to transcend your own pain and SOAR. ... Seek Me when you are lonely. Seek Me when you feel abandoned. Seek Me when you feel weak. Seek Me when the darkness hides the light. Seek Me anytime, from anywhere and for whatever reason. I promise to never leave you nor forsake you."

From 4/2/2015: Debbie: "Lord this is a very specific time. This is the week we focus on your journey to the Cross where you sacrificed ALL so that we not only could have eternal life with You in Heaven, but we could be set free from the ways of the world and its deception. Lord, there are so many questions to ask ..."

His response: "Do you know Me? Do you know me, Debbie? Do you really, really know Me? Know that I hear your heart—yearning, almost grieving, for those you cannot help because they can't hear. My heart yearns for My people to hear Me. I could shout from Heaven and they can't hear.

This was not the way My people were created to be/do. My people were created to be/do as their Creator created them to be/do. My people were created to Sing for Joy. My people were created to Dance and Praise their Creator. My people were created to not only live in My Kingdom, but to be Priests and Kings in My Kingdom. Where are My people? What do they do? My people have become captives to a system that they don't understand they are captive to. This week they will perform for one another the greatest sacrifice/gift given for mankind. How many of those, just in the performance, hearts are filled with deception and they suffer from "dis" (Debbie adds—words like disillusionment, discouragement, disappointment, etc.) How many of those who perform are filled with their addictive nature?

They do not know Me. They have not taken time to seek Me. They do not know of My ways as described in My Feasts - appointed times set aside to teach them what they do not know. They know not of My ways. They know not the treasure found/discovered by the treasure hunter. You see, Debbie, they once again celebrate in My honor, but they do not invite the guest of honor into their hearts. When they are stripped of all they believe worthy/worthwhile and when their self nature has been scourged, they will seek Me to discover all I desire for them. Until then, they are but white washed sepulchers. ... The Sadducees and Pharisees knew of Me but did not recognize Me when I stood before them. My people understand the sacrifice I made for them; they know little of the sacrifice needed to further My Kingdom; to seek Me with their whole Hearts, Minds, and Souls; Desire, not Duty."

From a writing 5/4/2019: "... You see, Debbie, you understand I Love My People, yet the question is not if I love them, but do they love Me? The world system consumes them. The selfish self-centered life imprisons them. They know little of My love for them because they are captive, but don't even know they are indeed captives. Who teaches of this captivity, Debbie? Who teaches of the pain, sorrow, and grief of this captivity? They teach of My destruction coming—of Judgement—but do they ever teach of their captivity, of their selfish self-centered nature? They teach of believing and having eternal life with Me in Heaven, but do they teach in addition to their Salvation, I came to set the captives free—for them to live a life more abundant in/through Me. Debbie, they teach of retrieving treasure on the surface; they miss the treasure that requires seeking the deep ways to reveal the nuggets that you seek. It is not about perfection; it is about compassion and seeking the true heart of the One you love and desire and not other's interpretations, but to truly know the One you say you love. ..."

From 5/14/2013 (a writing for such a time as this): "Debbie, Do you hear me? Do you hear me, Debbie? Do you really, really hear me? Today, I am near the top of your list of all your tasks you have to complete. Its when you put me at the top is when your life has order. It is when you seek Me above everything else is when you are strengthened/empowered. It is when you allow Me to fill your heart, your very being, that you are able to do anything; regardless of what you see as limitations. It is My indwelling strength that enables you to overcome what you see as your greatest weakness. When I am at the top of your priorities for the day; when you trust me to guide and lead you, then the burdens that tend to be too difficult, are lifted and you in turn are not consumed with heaviness.

Remember, Debbie, this was not your path designed by you and chosen by you to walk. This is the path that I have allowed and designed to build and mold you into the Creation that I have created you to be. Who you have become is who I desired you to be. What you see as your weakness and even your failure is by My design to work for your good and the good of My Kingdom. There are days of difficulty; there are days of happiness; there are days of invigoration; there are days when you feel defeated. But the greatest days are the days when you put Me at the top of your day—when you remember how much I Love You; that I promise never to leave you nor forsake you. And when the days become the most difficult, we will be together—you will never be alone to face them by yourself."

Recipes for Living/Thriving Tips:

Having been one who has journeyed the wilderness journey and has shared at this website much of my experience, there is so much wisdom and understanding to be gained as we learn about the Celebrations/Feasts—God's appointed times for His people. And, as one who has received writings for many, many years, my heart breaks for the way, as I have been shown "the greatest sacrifice/gift given for mankind" has been minimized and how it breaks the heart of our Father in Heaven the way Christmas and Easter is celebrated by His people. This year, let us gaze into the eyes of Jesus on the Cross and Honor, Thank, and Praise, and Adore our God, our Heavenly Father; God, Jesus Christ, the Son of God; and God, the Holy Spirit.
