

WHEN LIFE AS WE HAVE LIVED IT CEASES,
WILL IT BE A CHASTISEMENT OR JUDGEMENT OF GOD'S PEOPLE?

I have received writings since 10/31/1998 from the Lord through the Holy Spirit. In those writings, I have more than I can keep track of that indicate that "life as lived it will cease." I have writings that I have shared at this website that describe "cities with buildings that rise to the sky" will be attacked. I have writings that I have shared that indicate there will be "ash, ash, and more ash" throughout our nation as a result of an attack. I have been shown that "difficulties will come" and we must prepare. But what I have been given are very few (less than a handful) of writings that mention the word, "Judgement." I have been given an equal amount of writings that mention the word, "Chastisement." The focus of this website is about God's love for His people and to help them prepare for the difficulties that are coming; it is about Hope. This is not a website to share "warning" messages; it is to share "Awakening" messages. But I do have a few writings, a couple of which I want to share on these subjects. As I listen to "modern day prophets" teach, they teach of Judgement and the total destruction it will bring; I rarely hear anyone teach of "Chastisement" and the Hope for God's people in the midst of the destruction and devastation that is to come.

Why will the difficulties come? From a writing dated 2/28/2008: "Debbie, Come to My palace. You have been invited. Gaze at the Beauty; the Gold and Diamond Chandelier projects and reflects the never ending light. My palace is a reflection of My love as is everything in My Kingdom. Its walls are tempered with hues of reflected golden light beams from My love. The warmth of the palace is also a reflection of My love; beaming with intensity of the glow flowing from My heart. The preciousness of My palace is also a reflection of My love; pure, intense, and flawless without impurity. The corridors of My palace are all translucent; reflection of My love bouncing from end to end. You see in My Kingdom, there is warmth, translucence/transparency, pure preciousness, strength void of impurities. All sparkles, glitters, glistens, and shines in My Kingdom; there are no shadows and no room for deception. There is no place for darkness - only light; light that is generated from My unconditional, all consuming love.

I have created My Temple in man's heart to be like My palace to have strength (once purified and void of contaminants) to be able to withstand any storm created by man. To be precious (having again been purified and void of contaminants) to be able to reflect My love and warm and comfort and bring Hope to those who hurt. To be translucent; able to reflect My love as a beacon of Hope to flood the darkness with Love. In My palace, all sparkles and glitters and glistens. I have created men's eyes to reflect My love that is contained in their hearts. They, too, have been created to sparkle, glitter and glisten as they truly know, in their hearts, how much I love them.

The sanctification process is one of suffering and pain as one must leave behind what one is addicted to (that one feels is necessary for living their life) and turn to embrace the ways that bring one to have Hope and Everlasting Life with their Creator. Having endured the processes of the Potter's Wheel where you are molded and sculpted, not in your own hopes and desires, but by Faith and Trust; allowing the Creator to mold your character and design for His purpose, as well as having your character sifted at the Threshing Floor and purified at the Fiery Furnace, you have emerged with Strength, Character, and Hope - not in the world's ways, but in the Creator's. ... When My love starts to reflect from your heart to others, it will start to burn with its own fury; your eyes will light up with glistening, glitter As I shared with you My palace, I was also sharing the temple in your own heart. Once purified, My love has a place from which to reflect."

From 2/21/2009: "... Today has secrets to reveal that you have not discovered. It is not a heart who has never known My ways of setting the captive free that can sense what you sense. It is as if all your heart, mind, and soul can sense a great time of darkness, pain and sorrow, yet you know that I will keep My promises made to you during such a time. ... My people all followed Me, willingly, full of Faith and Trust, knowing I meant only good for them and My Kingdom. What you will see will sicken you. What you will see will disturb you. What you will see will cause your heart to question My love for you and others. Yet in the midst of despair, you will carry Hope - Hope, overflowing in your heart. You will know that evil caused what you have seen, but I will take what evil meant for their destruction and I will call My people to Me. I will cover them as a mother hen covers her chicks and I will protect them.

Debbie, it is not a heart who has never known My love as a Heavenly Father; as a friend, who will have Hope, overflowing or will have Hope of a New Day filled overflowing with Blessings and Abundance. My people will be burdened with Hearts of despair, pain, sorrow and fear. They will think that I caused this evil to come upon them in Judgement. They will not understand My unconditional love I have for them. They will feel I have abandoned them; rejected and feeling dejected, they will be tempted to run and hide from Me. But, Debbie, you know the truth. Time and again you have seen and even experienced, firsthand, that My ways are difficult, but those who are willing to follow Me, find treasure; they will truly live life more abundantly. ...

I will take them to the wells of refreshment. I will give them the food of renewal. They will breathe new life of regeneration. They will be revitalized as if brought forth from the dead with Hope, overflowing. They will have vigor and vitality to SOAR (to be/do what the Creator created them to be/do), and to Dance and Sing. They will know that I am their God, their Heavenly Father who loves them just as I have shown you, Debbie ... Prepare to Cover, Shelter”

From 8/11/2002: “.... Those I love, I Chastise, Debbie.” Debbie asks: “Am I the one you wish to chastise, Lord?” His reply: “Yes, Debbie, at times I must chastise all My children. They turn away from what is right and good and seek that which will cause them pain and suffering. It is then that I step in and bring what they see as pain into their lives so they can experience My love and find their way back to the path I have set before them.

.... Debbie, My Chastisement comes when there is harm or hurt being inflicted or when one has stumbled off the narrow path and finds themselves on a much wider/more traveled path. As humans, it is so hard to stay on the narrow path. Your eyes wander; your pride grows; your selfishness looms, encompassing your very soul. It is with Chastisement that your eyes seek My face, My ways, and My truth, and your feet find your way to tread on the slippery, narrow path; the one chosen for you to follow. You see, once on the much traveled path, My children will find much pain and sorrow. The temptations are great and the farther they go, the harder it is to find the narrow path on their own.

Debbie, it is not My desire to Chastise you. You remain on the path I have set before you. You do not live a perfect life and say perfect things. I don't expect that. I want My people to seek My face, to follow Me, to let Me teach them My ways. This is what I ask.

Debbie, there is coming a great Chastisement of your nation. It will be sooner than later. Go and prepare for such a day. I will give you the strength and knowledge; I will be your help in times of trouble. You will know because I have told you so in advance. Let this strengthen your Faith in a day of trouble.”

The bottom line: As we have been shown and have shared in “the Path to Overflowing Hope; the New Day” at this website, in order to “heal our land”/nation as in 2 Chronicles 7:14, first, our “hearts must be healed.” Whether you prefer to refer to it as a Judgement or a Chastisement, it is still up to us to seek the Lord with our whole hearts, minds, and souls for guidance and direction to prepare us in all ways; physically, spiritually, emotionally, and mentally.

Debbie