

I Love the Cross and the Passover Messages and More !!!

You might be thinking, so, Debbie, you say you love the Passover Message - are you Jewish? I love all people, especially those who are called God's people, but I'm from a very rural area. There were very few Jewish people, if any, who lived in the area where I grew up. But I must say, as I started understanding my own wilderness journey of almost 13 years, and I saw that I had experienced the same aspects that the Israelites did in their wilderness journey, I did begin to question why? These are all recorded in the "Path to Overflowing Hope" found at this website. They included my own captivity, my "Let my people go," "Parting of my own Red Sea," a "wandering in the wilderness/desert for longer than I thought could ever be," there was the Deuteronomy 29:4 understanding, the excruciating/difficult steps across my Jordan River, arriving into my Promised Land, and my own Jericho experience, as well as my life sustaining food—my Manna, my writings from the Lord through the Holy Spirit. It is all documented. You can read about my journey or it is on audio for those who just want to hear. And having experienced this journey firsthand, I realized that I wasn't Jewish, but the Lord was Jewish and these were His ways of setting this captive free.

So, I love Passover. I love Jesus. And, Jesus was the Passover lamb that gave His life/sacrificed for us all that we could live our lives in Heaven with Him for eternity—our ultimate freedom. I never understood I was captive as a Christian. I had asked Jesus into my heart—I thought I was free. I didn't realize I needed set free until I looked back on my own experience and then when I saw so many aspects in my own life of the wilderness journey, I realized I had indeed been captive to my own selfish self-centered nature and wanted to know more and more and more. I encourage all my Christian friends to learn especially about Passover. For Passover was the way that our Heavenly Father chose to set the Israelites, captives in Egypt, free. It is their wilderness journey and as God's Children, all of us are instructed to learn of His ways. As I have shown, the wilderness journey was the way I was set free and learned to live my life more abundantly as I have shared with you. It is His Way. And, Jesus, during the Last Supper, which as a Passover Meal, gave us specific instructions to remember Him always—what we call "Communion." Rather than confuse you, for more info please watch Rabbi Jonathan Cahn: "The Lamb"

www.youtube.com/watch?v=4VrQREzBFi8 "The Great Passover/Last Supper Celebration." Rabbi Cahn also performed a beautiful Passover Seder for 2020 where he provides the most informative teaching which is available on Daystar at www.daystar.com (to see it you must "sign in".)

So, when I started learning more and more and more after my own wilderness journey experience, I discovered that our Heavenly Father had specific times during the year that He set aside to meet with His children. Now, folks think these days are only for the Jewish people, but I have proof that there have been specific instructions/and launchings of various parts of the website that I will share that have happened on these dates. Most of these I didn't realize until I went back and found that these were the times that these events had happened. I am so thankful that I have been able to document through my writings over these years. There is so much that I learn/that has already been shared with me—years before—that I had forgotten. Anyway, I would encourage you to document, especially, what the Lord shares with you in your lives. It may not seem significant at the time, but you will be so thankful, later, for having done so.

So, I have a book, entitled, "The Feasts of Adonai, Why Christians should look at the Biblical Feasts," by Valerie Moody, 2nd Printing @ Gibbora Productions 2002 to 2010, available on Amazon which is a great guide to easy truth and understanding about the Feasts. If we truly understand the Feasts, then we have better insight into the ways of God and His desires for us.

Spring Feasts celebrated by Israelites; Significance to Christians today:

Passover - Jesus, the Passover Lamb was crucified on Passover to atone for sin. Matthew 26-28, Mark 14-16;

1 Corinthians 5:7; Hebrews 11:28.

Feast of Unleavened Bread. 7 Days. Time of Jesus's Burial. He was (unleavened) sin free. Mark 14:1&12; Acts 12:3,

1 Corinthians 5:6-8

Feast of Firstfruits - Jesus's Resurrection. (the Firstfruits from the dead) 1 Corinthians 15:20-23

Feast of Weeks - God sent the Holy Spirit to the Upper Room on this Feast day. Acts 2:1-4

Fall Feasts celebrated by Israelites; Significance to Christians today:

Feast of Trumpets (Rosh Hashanah) - “Head of the Year” Jewish New Year (social). Israel Honors God.

Leviticus 23:23-25; Numbers 29:1-6 God created Adam. God tests Abraham—Abraham bound Isaac on the Altar Genesis 22.

10 Days of Awe - Time of Repentance between Feast of Trumpets and Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur.)

Day of Atonement - Future Judgement. Jesus has atoned for our sins. Romans 3:24-26; Hebrews 10:1-24; Hebrews 9:7

Feast of Tabernacles - (Week of celebration to remember 40 years in the wilderness in tents and that God protected His people.) Future time when He will dwell on Earth to rule. John 7:2; Deut. 16:13

So, what is the significance of understanding these Feasts? By doing so, we know more about God’s ways today and in the future. This is the last day of Passover—a time that God protected His people from a plague. The Jewish people remember Passover and how God not only set them free from captivity, but protected them in the desert/wilderness for 40 years. They were taught, through the Passover feast and others and also the Feast of Tabernacles how God, through His Ways protected His people. In this time, as modern day Passover Seder’s have been celebrated, there is one way guaranteed to stay safe and well from a plague - especially for those who are over age 60; it was the same 3500 years ago. We are seeing the patterns/God’s Ways, repeated.

So, do the appointment/appointed times/Feasts apply in our lives today? You can judge by a few of the following events or instructions I have been given in My life that apply to this website and therefore to you. If specific dates are given indicates dates fell within a couple of days before or after Feast days with the exception of 10/10/10.

1988	Ten Days of Awe.	During this time I asked Jesus into my heart.
2008	Rosh Hashanah	Stock Market decline/crash (the day before)
2010	10/10/10	“As you begin this (next) journey (#10 = journey in Hebrew,) you will use two tools. You will need the power of Resonance to break down the walls and you will need the power of a Heart full of Compassion.” (this would become how the website is shared from “Heart to Heart until there are no more hearts to receive.”) From a writing* dated 10/10/10.
2010	9/30/10	Created “His Words” from compiling “Tell Them” writings later added to website.
2011	Feast of Tabernacles	“Welcome Home” Writing. “You have come Home.” Shared on this website.
2013	Feast of Tabernacles	Writing (instruction) - “Will you take what is in your heart that I have placed there and share with My people...?”
2014	Rosh Hashanah	Launched “Path to Overflowing Hope” at website
	Feast of Tabernacles	Trip to TX on behalf of Website
2015	10/8/15	Writing— “I will open up a path for you to walk that you never knew could be possible.”
	Ten Days of Awe	Writing— “When life as lived it ceases, ... this will be the beginning of the next part of your journey.”
2016	Yom Kippur	Writing— “This is your story; ....The message has been given to you ...”
2017	9/19/17	Writing— “You have a special message to deliver .... Your message is NOT to be of perfection but it is to be of Compassion.”
	Ten Days of Awe	Completed Video Portion— “Path to Overflowing Hope.” Audio version at website
2018	Rosh Hashanah	Writing— “The path has been prepared for you to walk.”
2019	Rosh Hashanah	Writing— “...You are to focus on the message of Awakening.”

I look forward especially during the Fall Feasts to hear what the Lord is going to share with me. It seems to be a time that I receive special instructions or even a new idea is birthed or even launched. As a result, it is the most exciting time for me of the year. I hope you will look at these appointed/appointment times with the Lord in a different way. It truly is a time when He speaks to me and to all His people if they are seeking Him. Please stay safe and well!
