

BRACE FOR IMPACT - PART TWO

“The Song”

As I shared in the previous article/message, it was late in the evening, during our time in self isolation due to Covid-19, that I decided to “click” on a YouTube channel using our ROKU called, “The Prophets Speak, <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=s6kFmZb02n0> by Jerrod L. Cooper of the UK, #42 in a series, where I found a most beautifully done “spoken word of prophecy,” introduced as from Nate and Christy Johnston which began about 15 minutes into the video. The first of the video was also amazing, as well. But it was the words that Christy spoke about 17 min. into the video that really got my attention: “Stand Still. Brace for Impact.” I shared a few of the writings that I had been given that also were about “Brace for Impact.” In addition, as I watched the video, Christy also mentions a “SONG” that will be sung. I have also been shown in my writings about a “SONG” as well, as I shared in the previous article/message, a writing dated 3/15/2009: “... And listen for the Song that My people will sing...” I add, this will be an indication that the “worst” is over. The writing continues “Joy will replace doubt and unbelief. And Love and Hope will fill their hearts overflowing. It will be a day of renewal of the mind, regeneration of their way of life, and revitalization of their Spirits. It will be a great day: a New Day. All I have promised I will do.” So there is much more to be shared on this topic of “The Song.”

From a King’s Palace writing* from 4/5/2011 (a better understanding of “Singing.”) More descriptions of the King’s Palace are provided at the end of “The Path to Overflowing Hope; the New Day” located at this website. This one is of the River. “... On each side of the River are golden pathways lined with trees that are fed by the river. The trees are tall and their roots grow deep. They glisten like glass and the branches reach upward. As the gentle wind flows through their branches, the trees sing a song of Hope and Thankfulness. In My Kingdom, all creations sing. It is as they have been created. As you travel down the path by the river, the river will also reveal its true nature in song of Hope and Thankfulness as it flows and provides refreshment to My creations. My creations were designed with a song in their hearts of Hope and Thankfulness. It is when all is stripped away of deception and addiction and their true nature is revealed, My children will sing. ... It is impossible for My creations, once they do/be what they were created to do/be, to not sing—it is as the have been created.”

In the Bible, there are many songs sung to the Lord. I’ve included just a few: Exodus 15: Moses and the Israelites sang a song to the Lord after they had safely crossed the Red Sea. Deuteronomy 32: Moses, again sang/spoke a song to the Lord at the end of the wilderness journey. Judges 5: Deborah and Barak sing a song to the Lord of their victory. 1 Samuel 18:7 Women sing a victory song. Psalm 18: David sang to the Lord.

What I have been shown is that we, too, will sing a SONG to the Lord at a time in our future called the “New Day” which will be at the end of great difficulties. From a writing dated 1/8/2008: “Look out your window this morning to the tranquility of the light blue hue of sky and mound of hill facing you with shadows streaming across the top and to the bottom. On one hand, you see signs of the Sun beaming on the hill and at the same time dark trails made by shadows across the ground. The dark shadows emerge, but as the Sunlight becomes stronger the dark shadows will disappear. So will it be in the time of the New Day.

The selfishness and self centeredness of even My people has cast dark shadows. Even though the Sun is shining, its brightness is not strong enough to cast out the darkness. The pollution of man’s heart with the ways of the world has cast shadows in places where there should be purity and strength and My people beaming light from within to the outside; shining night and day with a beacon of Hope. Where is there a place, Debbie? Why do you sit in isolation and seclusion? Why have others allowed their flames to be terminated? And why have others terminated the beating of so many little one’s hearts?

What has happened to My children? Where once a greater beam of light streamed across your nation—shown as a torch of liberty, it has been covered with shadows of deceit, hate, and discontent. Debbie, they say they are generous and philanthropic, yet they do not know Me. I am love, yet they do not know that which they say they are. They do not go in My name. If they do not go in My name, then they go in darkness. What can they do/accomplish without My love? Unconditional love casts out all fears.

The shadows are long and far reaching. The New Day will bring forth powerful light. Those who have been in the shadows will come forth into the light. The light beaming forth will light the dimmest of a flicker and it will burn strong. The shadows will start to diminish as the light reaches and covers even into the corners where the dark shadow hides.

It will be a day beginning with recovery and then rejuvenation and vitality as truth is revealed and revelation begins to spread. It will be a day of vitality as regeneration begins to come forth from the shadows. It will be a day of vitality as Hope saturates with its warmth, and the light of men's hearts burn ablaze with the love of their God and Savior. It will be a day of vitality as Repentance is heard across your land. Men will turn from the ways of the world and seek to find the love of their Heavenly Father. The Birthing of a New Day will be the worst of your fears. But once the New Day has come, it will be a time of Rejoicing, Rejoicing, Rejoicing. And they will know I Love Them and I am their Heavenly Father and I will be ready to gather them to Me."

From 1/27/2008: "... When the fire falls to the ground, so will My love fall on My people. And a New Day will begin. First, will come the darkness of midnight and then morning will come and light will begin to blaze. (Debbie adds: this could be many, many months.) Singing will be heard unlike ever heard before. Joy will begin to take its place and begin to spread. There's coming a great time of Harvest. They will know Me and Hope will pour out overflowing from their hearts."

From 5/7/2008: "... Debbie, I will take what evil meant for their destruction, and I will begin to set the captives free. I will set their hearts ablaze with new Hope and new Life. I will cause the trappings; the deceptions of their heart to burn away as they grow closer and closer to Me and truly discover My love for them. Their journey will be a difficult one, but what will they have to return to—Ash. I will build them back; strong, competent knowing My love for them, knowing they are Royalty in My Kingdom, and there is nothing to fear because I Love Them. As terrible as the day that evil meant to destroy them, we will Celebrate a day, "A New Day," as equal in strength but it will be "Celebration!" And as evil left behind devastation, the "New Day" will leave in its wake Celebration, Thankfulness, Peace and Hope to overflowing."

From 5/20/2009: "... Evil caused the fury to be released on your nation. I will cause those who listen with their hearts to rise up and go where I send them. They will take My love, truth and with grace, will pour out My love on those who are suffering; those who have lost Hope and I will watch as the withering, wilting, and those who are fading away are revived, rejuvenated and exhilarated knowing My promises are true: I will never leave them nor forsake them. They will begin to rise from the ashes of destruction and begin to flourish and flower and bloom. They will live life more abundantly. What was meant for their destruction will fail. And the entire world will watch as My people are built back with Hope overflowing and a Praise for the King of Kings pouring from them. The song to be sung: (Debbie adds—this is the song I was given): Praise the Holy One of Israel and of all nations. Praise Him morning, noon, and night. Praise Him not for the approval/acceptance of men. Praise Him not out of duty. Praise Him because He keeps His promises. Praise Him because He is the Creator. Praise Him because your Heart bursts forth, overflowing with Praise for Him. He is our Deliverer, Provider, Heavenly Father, Heavenly Architect, Heavenly Broker, Heavenly CEO, Heavenly Physician, Heavenly Counselor, Teacher and Friend. Praise Him because without Him, we understand we can do nothing; we are nothing."

From 6/2/2008: “.... As destruction starts consuming life as you knew it, do not be afraid. I will never leave you nor forsake you. And always remember, this was not My making—this was evil’s plan and actions. And I will be a Father to My children and promise to take what evil has meant for their destruction and turn it around for their good. When darkness looks as though it has overtaken the light, a SONG of Hope will emerge. Just as a newborn cries out and announces its arrival, so shall a Song cry out and announce the arrival of a New Day. Miracles, Prosperity, Joy unspeakable, an Awakening of Hearts filled overflowing with Hope and Love will burst forth. God’s Kingdom will bloom and saturate your nation with fragrance of God’s Love. As harsh as evil’s destruction so will be the Joy of the New Day. Cleansed, the old will disappear and the new will shine bright.”

From 5/26/2008: “.... As you stand on the Precipice of Grace, Honor, and Truth, all around is darkness. Light is being overcome by evil. Evil has already begun destruction of the “unsuspecting” in your nation and others. Debbie, the time to take a step into the unknown grows nearer and nearer. When the time comes, remember My love for you. My love will strengthen you. My love will protect you from those who do not know of My love for them and others. My love will open your heart so that others can know of My love as they have never experienced before. Before today, you were just a wanderer; unknowing of your true purpose, seeking to do My will, following the path before you blindly. ... When they ask who warned you and why did you prepare when others did not? Let them know that God Loves You and He Loves all those who seek to find Him and learn of His ways. That He gave His Son, Jesus, and that who believes in Him shall have everlasting life. Tell them about the New Day Coming. Seek the Lord and He will direct them through the darkness to the New Day. The New Day will provide Hope to Overflowing—Abundant Life.

On a day much like this one, all you know of life the way you currently live it will cease. What is, will no longer be. Cities that rise into the clouds will be covered in Ash. It will be like nothing you have ever seen or imagined; it will be unimaginable. Destruction will be rampant. Devastation will be overwhelming, overpowering, overcoming the most hardened soldier. Where once was luxury will be toil and hardship. In the midst of the devastation, as in the midst of all tragedy, will be opportunity. This was not My making or did I speak this into existence. This was evil—planned and carried out by men consumed by evil for the destruction of what they defined as evil.

What evil has meant for your nation’s destruction, I will turn around for good. I will set those who are captive to their addictions and deceptions, free and teach them how to live life more abundantly—life lived from the Blueprint that is engraved on each of their hearts. It is truly a time to Brace for Impact.”

In 2007 and 2008, I was given an entire section of writings that pertained to “the Great Storm is Coming.” As you can see from these writings, in 2008 and 2009, I have another entire section in my files, pertaining to “the New Day!” We must journey through the Great Storm to get to the New Day. And you may be saying, but Debbie, that was years ago. Yes, and the message is still the same. My writings since that time have been preparing us to share with you (even the advance of technology to do so and your desire to receive) as well as watching events unfold; learning and understanding, etc. We understood then and share with you, now, so you, too, can know what we understand to be true and prepare. I will share more about the “New Day,” soon. Listen to this song by Jeremy Camp from 2009 that begins with a “New Day has begun”: We haven’t seen such a time, yet, with our eyes—but have with the eyes of our hearts.
