

The Sheep and the Goats !!!

From a writing* from 10/15/2009: "...What you will see develop as two nations erupt into battle will cause much concern. But as those of your nation watch from a distance, they will not see the weapon of mass destruction/annihilation until it erupts over your nation producing devastation never experienced on the planet. Those who have been listening will hear. Those who have been watching will see. Those who have been readied, are expecting and waiting.

As they gaze at the news reports they will breathe sighs of relief as the threat is no more/having been defused. The sacrifices having been made; out of sight/out of mind/problem taken care of. They will continue to trudge in the muck and mire; little changed. ... What was never to happen will happen and in one hour everything will change. Those who know not of My love for them will seek to and fro looking for security and safety, not knowing where to find it for there will be little to none. ... It is coming."

Could it be that this writing describes what we just saw happen in the world? Why would we be given this? Have you ever confronted someone to clarify something you believe they said and they responded in a very/harsh/stern/defensive tone: "Who told you that? I never told you that? Where did that come from?" I ask, why do you believe what you believe? Who told you that? Who told them? And who told them before them? Have we been told our nation will be destroyed because of the killing of babies and the issues regarding gay rights, etc. Does that make our loving Heavenly Father our judge and executioner?

I remember in the 90's when we gathered in our local town circles for the National Day of Prayer and we prayed that God would "heal" our land as in 2 Chronicles 7:14. I realized at that time what I was praying and I quit going to the National Day of Prayer rallies. I couldn't pray for what I knew it would take to "Heal our Land." You see, we are guilty of the killing of the babies and the issues of the gay rights, etc.—not just a few of us, but all of us because our hearts are not right; our nation is driven by our selfish self-centered ways. If the hearts of the people were right with God then there would be no abortions and men who were lovers of other men would be lovers of their God and would never want to do anything that would cause dishonor to Him—by our sinful actions, we dishonor Him.

Back then I realized that the entire nation would have to be brought to its knees at the same time in order for our hearts to be healed. I had seen disaster after disaster, but never had the people turned to their Heavenly Father, and only for a very, very, very short time after 9/11/2001. They turned to their govt., their insurance companies, and those with compassion who were there to help them. We never got the message. So you see, after experiencing my own "healing of my heart," I knew what it would take. I couldn't bear to ask for such devastation to come to our nation. Since then, it's been over 20 years, I now know that it is the only way our nation will be healed; first it will be the hearts of the people.

My focus on the crisis that is coming is not just what I read in Revelation or Matthew 24. I have been shown that the message I have been given spans from Genesis (from the Garden) to Revelation and much in between. As in Esther, it is not a message that is only about the annihilation (ending) of a people. It does have a crisis in which the people are to be annihilated, but it also has a message of Hope and Truth that the people can prepare, overcome, and be victorious and live through what was meant to destroy them. When the crisis comes, and we know it is coming, we are preparing to live through it and to bring Hope and Truth of God's Love to those who live through it as well. To us, it is not an ending, it is a beginning of learning to live our lives as God intended. So who are you listening to? Are you preparing—if nothing else, are you hiding away in your heart the real truth of God's love for His people or are you waiting for everything to end. As we have been shown over, and over our Lord has not shown us that He is going to destroy us—He wants us to know that "men who are deceived by evil" will cause our lives to cease to exist as we have lived them. The Lord will be there to help us as we begin our journey to living our lives His way—not as our judge and executioner, but as our Lord and Savior, even our friend if we will grow close to Him.

So, who are you listening to? Are you listening to the "chatter of the riders on the horses" as we have been shown to listen to. We have. Kim Jung Un has made two trips and recorded for his people, three trips on a white horse to the top of Mt. Paektu (their sacred mountain) proclaiming "a new strategic weapon" to be tested soon and that there is a "great operation to strike the world with wonder again," and there is to be a "shocking actual action" to be taken, as well as no more talks about denuclearization. And as we have found by listening to Dr. Pry's interview found at this website, Kim Jung Un has the ability to cause our lives to cease as we have lived them. And Dr. Pry didn't have KJU's proclamations that came out at the end of the year to give us his expert comments on.

How about Pres. Putin? Have you been listening to him boast of his weapons? In a YouTube heard yesterday, Russia is producing so many new naval vessels, they don't have enough names for them—the names come from cities, etc. And then there is the Hypersonic Missile—it seems a great achievement. There was a YouTube entitled: “Why Sweden is encouraging citizens to become Preppers!” We found that Norway was doing the same. They are concerned about a Russian invasion. The Lord showed me in writings to listen for the “chatter.” Was it about peace and if about war, then we must prepare. Before the conflict broke out with the US and Iran, there was a 4 day naval drill near the Gulf of Oman of Iran, Russia, and China. So, who are you listening to? Are you preparing your heart for an ending or a beginning?

I have often heard of TV Christian folks speaking of Matthew 25:32 “separating of the sheep from the goats.” Some even think the process has already begun. From a writing dated 6/28/2015 (the time of the Supreme Court gay marriage ruling and the White House was in rainbow colors): “... When life as lived it ceases, the sifting will begin separating the goats from the sheep. My people have heard the voice of their Shepherd; they are the sheep. Those who dance in the streets have chosen who they desire to follow—they are the goats. You made a choice long ago and was willing to follow Me and learn of My ways. They think they know what is good, but what they desire most is evil/an abomination in My sight. Soon they will feel the wrath of evil in ways, unsuspecting, and My people who are called by My name, who have humbled themselves and turned from their evil ways, and called out to Me, I will hear from Heaven and I will heal their land. My children hear/know My voice as well as My ways.”

This is not a message of fear. This is a message of Truth, Hope, and Love. To understand the truth is to be empowered. Everyone can prepare in some form or another. A light when in the midst of the darkness—whether it be a flashlight or your heart with truth—shines Hope. You need a PLAN - shelter (shielding from radiation fallout—a basement without windows with concrete overhead,) food, water—we have provided what you need to consider at this website. Who are you listening to? We are listening as we have been instructed, to the “chatter of the riders on the horses.” Please re-read the book of Esther.
