

The Waves of Difficulties and The Remnant - What we can learn from Gideon's Army !!!

This is the most difficult article I have written and posted thus far, but I believe it is the most important given the difficulties we are facing all around the world. It is to be composed of at least 20 portions of writings.* I want to start out by sharing the latest writing the Lord shared with me on 2/24/20. I developed the flu before Christmas, and subsequent "Post Viral Cough" that lasted until the 2/24 when not only I, but my husband a week before, was diagnosed with pneumonia. I guess our immune systems were just overloaded. From the writing: "Lord this was a big surprise. I had no idea that I had Pneumonia. Now I must learn all I can from this experience. ..."

His response: "... Today you experienced what few experience in their lifetime. It came on suddenly, as fast as could be imagined. It came with a fury not expected. And it came at a time when you were not expecting. This is the way of the difficulties; the DIFFICULTIES WILL COME IN WAVES. So you were ready, having plans in place to work through the difficulties. This will be THE WAY OF MY PEOPLE. They will wait with great anticipation—always watching/always planning/always preparing so they are never caught unsuspecting. (I add—remember Gideon's Army.) (Read about Gideon beginning in Judges Chapter 6.)

You were ready for the difficult news. You have help. You have supplies tailored to fit the difficulties. So when the news was delivered you immediately switched into an action plan provided by your medical provider. You listened. You evaluated all the data. You chose the path that led to the answers to heal you. This is THE WAY OF MY KINGDOM. Yet, few understand. What would they do having received the same news? You were not filled with anxiety and hopelessness. You allowed others to share their opinions/advice and you chose to follow that advice." The writing ended—I fell asleep. (Understand this was NOT Covid 19; this was Bacterial Pneumonia treated with a specific antibiotic to treat pneumonia, inhaler with medication to clear air passages, daytime cough syrup as well as nighttime, and more.) With Covid 19, there are no treatments, except through hospital for severe cases.

From here, I will share more about the "WAVES OF DIFFICULTY" from my writings. From 7/10/2013: "... Evil will blanket your nation from coast to coast, from border to border. It will come so quickly and with such ferocity that many/most will not know what happened. They will be stunned by the horror. But, Debbie, that will be the beginning. That will be how it starts. But there will be WAVES of Difficulties to follow: little to no food, limited shelter, predators (two legged) will have to be addressed and overcome/solved, masses will be relocated to areas to better meet their needs. WAVE after WAVE of DIFFICULTIES will have to be faced; one seemingly coming right after the other. Those who are not prepared will be forced to find what they need at their own peril. ..."

One morning I woke up and there were flocks of birds flying—much like waves - tons of birds. From a writing dated 12/10/14: "... When life as lived it ceases; When what was never to happen happens, it will come much like the birds. There will be WAVES and WAVES—one after another of that which will be fearful—having never experienced anything like it on the planet. There will always be HOPE—knowing I have a plan to prosper ... never to harm you and will never leave nor forsake you, and knowing what you know and knowing you know you not only know it but have done it. ..."

So WHY the difficulties? From a writing on 4/22/2012: "My desire has always been to have a people that wished to be My people to observe My ways and live their life more abundantly. When life as lived it ceases, they will grow in knowledge and understanding through the leading of Jesus and the teaching of the Holy Spirit. Just like you, they were warned and provided a way of escaping the destruction that is coming. Very few heard and responded. They chose to continue in the ways that brought them convenience and pleasure, and have remained vulnerable to the fury of evil that will be unleashed. They will be but lambs to the slaughter. With those who have listened to My voice, I will continue to lead and they will be like the soldiers of GIDEON'S ARMY. With a very few that have great fire and passion, I can ignite what has been thought to be lost. When all looks as though it is gone, I will ignite a fire in the hearts of My people that will never be extinguished. It will be the fire, an all consuming fire, which will not burn things—it will burn in the hearts of men—consuming deception and revealing truth. A fire of revitalization, regeneration, and reviving what was thought to be extinguished. It will be a great day. It will be the NEW DAY when men will draw close to Me, not out of duty or necessity, but out of desire."

So, until I experienced Pneumonia, firsthand, I had no understanding of the threat to folks like me of Covid 19. I now realize if my husband and I are to survive this illness we must prepare to Self Isolate ourselves. There is no cure and our immune systems are insufficient to fight. I understand that young folks can get this virus and go on with their lives without major problem. As I understand that is about 80% of those who contract this virus. So, there will be many, many people who will leave the planet, but life will continue for most others. From 12/9/19: “Before you lies a time of great disappointment, disillusionment, discouragement, etc. The time before you has been prepared/designed to cause those in your nation to suffer (words that begin with “dis”) as they have never known before. When life as lived it ceases, you will see what you never thought possible. Many, many, many will leave the planet. Some will come live with Me—many will not. They will not know of Me or My love for them—they will be lost to eternal torment and suffering. There will be those who will be caught unsuspecting and therefore will suffer as a result because they did not hear Me or those who did hear Me. They will wander to and fro looking for safety and security, but will find only more “dis.” (There were more descriptions of suffering coming that I did not include.) So when do you ask does this time begin? It has already begun. Everything is set, Debbie.” (We, in the US, tend to forget those who suffered at the hands of ISIS.)

But Covid 19 is just a wave, just as I believe Pneumonia was a wave for us. Just because you “survive” one wave doesn’t mean you needn’t continue to prepare because we know there are other WAVES of Difficulty that are coming. I believe we can look to teachings of Gideon’s Army to understand how what folks call a “Remnant” comes to be. The “Remnant” are the ones that survive all the difficulties as the writings indicate—the Compassion Warriors and Warriorettes that enter into the NEW DAY. From 12/17/2018: “Debbie, they don’t understand now, but they will once they have journeyed the wilderness journey. This was not MY making. This was men who were deceived by evil. Evil delights in destroying My people, but My people will rise out of the ashes and be the people I desire them to be.”

So, is this Harvest Time? What is my (Debbie’s) Harvest? From 11/14/2012: “... The Harvest is gathering the Hearts from the layers and layers of deception that blind them from the truth, the truth that enables them to know the love in their Hearts that you know in yours. It’s Harvest Time, Debbie. You be the example, and I’ll show/reveal the truth.”

From 12/1/2014: “... There is an avenue (website) reaching father than you can imagine. Where hope was but a glimmer of light in the distance in the blackest of black, My children are learning and sharing the truth in a way no one has ever shared with them. They are welcoming and willing to open their hearts to receive. They are being strengthened and filled with Hope and Love, overflowing. They are the architects and builders who will build back My Kingdom—not by the traditions of men, but by the leading of the Holy Spirit. ...”

From 12/3/14: “... When life as lived it ceases in your nation, it will be much the same. People have not been taught the ways of My Kingdom. Their hearts are filled with deception which only leads them to “dis.” The ones who can hear will receive all you have to share with them that you learned as you traveled the Path of life to the Precipice of Grace Hope and Truth. We have journeyed together, you and I, and a new journey is before us. You have Hope, Overflowing filling your heart; that which I have placed there as you have embraced My love during the most difficult times. Just as the deer pants for the water, Debbie, your soul pants for Me. Is it your desire that life continue with men’s hearts filled overflowing with deception? It will only be a matter of time until man destroys one another and all the planet. There is a Great Harvest, Debbie. It has already begun. Seeds have been planted that you never knew existed. Among those seeds are ones you planted. What they do not know/understand now they will know to be true shortly....”

From 7/27/2011: “... In My Kingdom, there is peace, tranquility, beauty, serenity, and love abounds, not out of a sense of duty or necessity, but because it is the only way. ... You see, it is not out of duty that you continue to gather from your abundance, it is because the Harvest is ready and needs to be gathered. Debbie, the fields are ready to be Harvested. It is time for those who desire My Kingdom to stand up so as to be harvested. Harvest comes in various forms. The Harvest can come as a result of being beat on the threshing floor and then sifted as the chaff is separated from the wheat. Harvest can come in an instant or it can come at the end of a very long growing cycle. Harvest can come by the blade or it can come by plucking out by the roots, leaving behind the weeds and the tares. Debbie, where are the ones who are willing to toil in My fields to share/pour out all I have shared with them onto those who are perishing—who have been left unattended? The rains are coming.

The great storm is beginning. And my children are like sheep going to/awaiting a slaughter—some ready, but most just frightened, lost, and feeling abandoned not only by the ones who were to tend to them, but they will feel I abandoned them.”

I’ll conclude with: 8/6/2017: “... When life as lived it ceases there will be little to no safety and security. There will be enormous lack of drinking water. Food will be little to none. And they will look to Heaven and shake their fists and believe I caused it to be. They will have been told I Judged them. I gave My life for them so they could live an eternal life with Me in Heaven for eternity. Debbie, I warned them. Yet they carried on their lives as if what was a warning was just something to entertain them (the Total Solar Eclipse—8/21/17). So, when life as lived it ceases, will you tell them I LOVE THEM. I sent warnings—prophets, teachers, and Heavenly signs. Their nation was vulnerable, yet all they sought was convenience and entertainment, and speculation—never looking to find the truth.”

It’s Seed Starting Time: Some of us, who will be self isolating, will want to start our own plants so we can maintain distance from those who are selling plants. As I ponder what I see happening, especially with those of my age in connection with Covid 19, I can’t help but think about the Israelites in the Desert. Remember, only the ones who listened and followed the leadings of their Creator, made it to the Promised Land—an entire generation died off over 40 years. They were strong-willed, stubborn, and did not trust God. (Read Deuteronomy Chapter 31 into the book of Joshua.) Had we not prepared, as we have shown you to prepare, we would not be able to “Self Isolate” for our protection. Our decision and the transition is easy - we have what we need already. We have heard the Lord and allowed Him to teach us through the guidance of the Holy Spirit. To survive the coming WAVES of DIFFICULTIES, one must Seek the Lord with their Whole Heart, Mind, and Soul. We have a great work to do—we are prepared for this wave of difficulty.
