

Welcome Home !!!

In John 16:7 KJV, Jesus told His followers, “Nevertheless I tell you the truth, it is expedient for you that I go away for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you, but if I depart, I will send Him unto you.” Continue to read through 16:15. The Comforter is the Holy Spirit.

When I received the first writing, which was midway through my own wilderness journey, I didn’t know what I had. I thought it was from the Lord so I shared it with a couple of friends and one friend, Sally, read it and said, “Debbie, this is from the Lord. This is a blessing and you should always cherish it.” And so I did. And now I have at least 40 pounds of yellow legal pad type paper with handwritten writings that I know have been shared with me from the Lord through the Holy Spirit. A few of these or portions of these, I have shared with you. You see, I have learned that the Holy Spirit has a lot to share if we are willing to listen. And the fact that I cherish each writing, I believe is why He shares so much with me.

So, there are three types of writings that I have been given. One type is my inquiries (you would call them documented prayers.) They may be praising Him for all the blessings or asking Him for help or encouragement, asking Him to clarify something I don’t understand, but mostly, I just ask Him to share whatever He would like to share with me. And then He shares with me His response—which I also document.

The second type writing I would receive is generated by Him through the gentle nudging of the Holy Spirit. These are King’s Palace Writings. I call them that because in every one of those writings, I was given a description of the King’s Palace before the message/purpose for the invitation (gentle nudging) to the King’s Palace was shared with me. I have included descriptions of the King’s Palace near the end of the “Path to Overflowing Hope” and also share on the audio version. Usually, the King’s Palace type writings were initiated when a new path/plan/direction was to be taken. The very first writing I received as an invitation to the King’s Palace type writing which I share in “the Path to Overflowing Hope” at this website.

Since 1998, these were the types of writings that I received—ones I generated and invitations to the King’s Palace, but in 2011 something very interesting happened. And I want to now share a portion of one of those writings with you from 10/13/2011. It was this writing that the artist used to create the painting that is shared at the end of “The Path to Overflowing Hope.” “Debbie, do you know Me? Do you know Me, Debbie? Do you really, really know Me? Look Up. Look up farther than you can see. Look beyond the tree tops. Look beyond the ocean of clouds. Look, can you see the light shining far in the distance? As you come closer, it becomes larger as if a beacon shining in the dark. As you draw closer, it is as if a city is shining/piercing through the darkness. As you walk up toward the city, it is as if it is pure gold, reflecting pure light. WELCOME HOME, Debbie. You have come HOME. All you desire; all you dare to be, you will find here. What you want more than anything else is here. When life as you have lived it ceases, know you are always welcome. If you want to chat, I am always here. If you want to learn, I will teach and counsel you and all you can comprehend and understand. If you need a special love that only I can give, I am here. This is the King’s Palace where few are invited, but you are always welcome....” This beautiful writing continued sharing about the devastation that will come and that is not what this article is about. I never had any more King’s Palace type writings. I have learned just to run HOME with my heart willing to receive all He has to share. I know that my home on planet Earth is just my temporary home, but I know my true Home is in Heaven—the King’s Palace. Please visit the page that starts with “Surprise” near the end of the “Path to Overflowing Hope.” Debbie
